

What are the benefits of earning the LEED® AP credential?

Miami Dade College School of Community Education is your complete resource for technical review workshops.

Strengthen your green building knowledge.

Empower your company with today's most valuable design + development resource.

Market your green building knowledge to potential and existing clients.

Contribute to your professional development in an uncertain market.

Earn recognition with the nation's predominant green building professional credential.

How do I become a LEED Accredited Professional?

Earn the LEED AP by passing the LEED Professional Accreditation exam.

We are providing frequent and convenient course schedules to give you the most flexibility in studying for the exam.

To prepare for the exam:

Sign-Up for a LEED Technical Review Course

www.mdc.edu/ce/leedap.html

(305) 237- 0905

Upcoming Dates
Kendall Campus

February 10 2009_LEED NC

February 25 2009_LEED CI

March 12 2009_LEED NC

March 31 2009_LEED for CONTRACTORS